

ECHO OF EDEN LTD WISHING WELLS

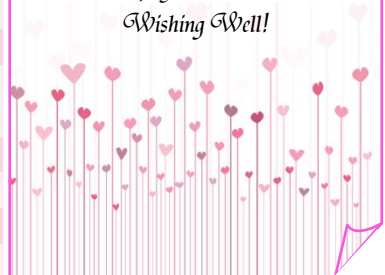

Many couples today prefer a donation to their "wishing well" than the more traditional gifts associated with weddings.

Why not hire one of our newly commissioned, beautiful pine-crafted wishing wells to securely hold monetary gifts and wedding wishes received from your guests on the big day? Our wishing wells are approx 3ft tall x 2ft wide and can be handled by one person. Placing a wishing well on a table makes a lovely focal point for your guests to place other wedding gifts alongside too. The posting box area is wide enough to hold most oversized greeting cards. Comes with decoration as seen including lock and key!
